

DEPARTMENT OF CURRICULUM INSTRUCTION AND EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATIONS

It is headed by Mr. Wycliffe Osabwa
Ayieko (Ag. Chair)

It has two areas: Curriculum and Educational Foundations

Generally, the disciplines contribute towards preparation of pre-service secondary school teachers

The Department offers professional development courses that underpin the basis and rationale for education, as well as expertise in classroom instruction

MEMBERS OF STAFF

The Department has nine full time and part time members of faculty

1. Mr. Wycliffe Osabwa Ayieko – Acting Chair of Department
2. Prof. Carolyne Omulando – Dean, SESS
3. Dr. Annety Makokha
4. Mr. Levy Kachilei
5. Dr. Hillary Busolo
6. Mr. Antony Oure
7. Dr. Aineah Wambasi
8. Dr. Marbel Odhiambo
9. Mr. Dickson Kimeli

FIRST YEAR COURSES FOR SEMESTER 1

Under Curriculum Instruction, the following courses will be offered:

EDB 100: Principles of Accounting: - Dr. Annety Makokha

EDB 101: Micro-Economics: Mr. Levy Kachilei

FIRST YEAR COURSES FOR SEMESTER 2

EDF 111: Philosophy of Education

EDF 112: Character, Integrity and Education

These will be taught by Mr. Wycliffe Osabwa Ayieko

CONCLUSION

All courses offered in the department are mandatory

They offer knowledge, skills, beliefs and attitudes that inform the overall education process, enabling teachers to handle their respective subjects competently. Students are urged to take the courses seriously, for they will contribute heavily to their final grade that will be reflected in their Teaching Practice. course . No Education student will graduate without having passed this course. The said common courses must therefore be accorded equal premium just like one's teaching subjects.

Welcome to Alupe University College

